OF THE

CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION OF BANGALORE

FOR

BY

GENERAL SIR HARRY PRENDERGAST,

K. C. B., V. C., R. E.,

PART I.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

No changes took place during the year in the form of administration of the Civil and Military Station.

The following legislative enactments were introduced:—

(A) Section 6 of Act XIII of 1875 (an Act to amend the law relating to Probates and Letters of Administration).

(B) Sections 52 to 57, both inclusive, of Act I of 1877, Part III, (Specific Relief Act); while by two Notifications of the Government of India complete reciprocity in the matter of execution of civil processes between the Courts of the Civil and Military Station and of Mysore Government was established on a legal basis.

2. Police.—The Police report of the year shows that 276 cognizable cases (excluding offences under the Police Act and Municipal Regulations and Bye-laws) were registered against 245 in the previous year.

Referring to para 11, part II, it will be observed that though there was an increase of 4 cases in the crimes reported under Class II (serious offences against person), the number of cases fully investigated as true was 6 as against 7 in the previous year. Out of the 14 complaints registered in the present year two cases of murder by soldiers were disposed of by the military authorities, while 4 other cases were struck off as false.

The increase under Class V (minor offences against property) is chiefly due to the fact that 23 cases were registered against only 4 persons. The percentage of persons convicted to those arrested has as a rule fallen. Of the total number of persons (249) arrested under provisions of the Penal Code, 211 were convicted.

It is to be regretted that during the year there has been a considerable increase in the value of property stolen, the amount being Rs. 28,024 as compared with Rs. 4,703 in the previous year.

One case, however, of house-breaking alone involved a loss of Rs. 22,630, and the whole of the stolen property was recovered.

The percentage of recovered property is in consequence high and above the average for last year.

Under "Grave crime" one serious case of murder and suicide occurred. A Jamadar of the 12th Regiment having shot a Subedar of the same Regiment, shut himself up in his house in the lines, and shot first his wife and then himself.

Ten years had elapsed since the last case of dacoity occurred. On 16th August 1887, just after dark, some 8 dacoits attacked two women and a man and robbed them of all they had. The case remains undetected.

Under class VI "Other offences not specified above" including cases under Police Act and Municipal Bye-laws, there were 1,457 cases against 2,119 in 1886. The decrease is attributed by the District Magistrate to the provision of a larger number of latrines and urinals during the year under notice.

Only two cases of non-cognizable crime were reported during the year against 6 in 1886, and conviction was recorded in both the cases.

The discipline of the Force appears to have been fair, and in the opinion of the Resident the working of the Police during the year has been satisfactory.

3. Criminal Justice.—The administration of Criminal Justice during the year presents no new features. The total number of offences reported was 2,908 as compared with 3,516, the percentage of cases returned as true being 97·73 as against 98·94 in the preceding year. The total number of cases brought to trial, including 49 cases pending at the close of the previous year, was 2,891, and the number of persons under trial 4,024; the percentage of convictions was 64·56, and of discharges and acquittals 35·05, the proportion of convictions on summary trials to the total number convicted being 97·48. 17 cases affecting 17 European British subjects were brought to trial before the District Magistrate; of these 12 were convicted and the remainder acquitted or discharged. Of the 15 persons brought to trial before the Sessions Judge conviction was obtained against 11, and the remaining 4 were acquitted or discharged. There were 5 appeals to the Resident's Court against 7 in the previous year. Three of these were rejected summarily, and in two the sentences of the lower Courts were confirmed.

4. Civil Justice.—As regards the administration of Civil Justice the number of suits instituted during the year under notice, namely 2,248, is the highest on record in the Civil and Military Station, and shows an increase of 354 cases over the figures of the preceding year. The total value of suits instituted was Rs. 2,39,815, and the average value of each suit Rs. 106—10—10. Including 230 suits pending from the previous year, 2,260 were disposed of, comprising 193 ordinary suits and 2,067 small cause suits: out of these 14 or 7·25 per cent of ordinary and 846 or 40·92 per cent of small cause suits were decreed ex-parte.

There were for disposal 1,671 applications for execution of decrees during the year against 1,322 in 1886, and the numbers disposed of during the year under notice and the previous year were respectively 1,533 and 1,239. The fall of Rs. 35,182 in the amount realized in execution of decrees, as compared with the figures of 1886, is not ascribable to any special cause.

There were ten appeals to the Resident's Court during the year. The decisions of the lower Court were confirmed in 4 cases, and were either modified or reversed in the remaining six appeals. The duration of appeals was 61·4 as against 74·26 in the previous year. The average cost incurred by suitors in the appeals amounted to Rs. 113—0—6 per suit.

5. Registration.—Fourteen hundred and seventy-six documents of all kinds were registered during the year against 1,504 in the past year. Of these 1,387 related to immovable and 89 to movable property, the latter exceeding the number registered in 1886—87 by 13.

The receipts during the year amounted to Rs. 4,586 and the expenditure to Rs. 1,662 against Rs. 4,774 and Rs. 1,650 respectively in 1886—87, the percentage of expenditure to income being 36·24 against 34·56 in the previous year. There were no appeals nor prosecutions under the Act during the year under notice.

The aggregate value of property transferred by registration during the year amounted to Rs. 8,18,342 against Rs. 8,85,778 in the previous year, which in a measure accounts for the falling off in the receipts as shown above.

6. Municipal.—The only change of any importance made during the year under notice was the amendment of Sections 195 and 208 of the Bangalore Municipal Regulations of 1883, thereby extending the liability to the payment of the lighting rate to the owners as well as to the occupiers of buildings &c. in the Civil and Military Station.

Rule 7 of the election rules was amended during the year, so as to provide for a general election of the Commissioners every two years. Bye-law No. 48 was also amended, and as it now stands drivers are compelled to affix lighted lamps to their vehicles on moonlight as well as on dark nights.

The income of the Municipality during the year amounted to Rs. 1,68,617 against Rs. 1,85,329 in 1886—87, the decrease being mainly attributable to the abolition of the octroi. The revenue sacrificed by this change was replaced to a certain extent by the enhancement of the fees levied on slaughtered animals and the introduction of a lighting rate, these two measures realizing a sum of Rs. 23,914 or Rs. 15,146 less than the octroi revenue in the previous year; while a saving of Rs. 5,959 effected by the abolition of the octroi establishment, reduced the actual loss to Rs. 9,187.

There was a decrease of Rs. 1,726, under "Tax on professions and trades," which is due to arrears in the collection of house tax in the year under report. The existence of so large an arrear, though perhaps due partly to the enhancement of the demand for the year, is an unsatisfactory feature in the report. "Liquor license fees" yielded Rs. 35,552 against Rs. 29,779 in the previous year, attributed to an increased number of licenses issued, and to increased realization on account of duty levied on excess sales of arrack and beer in the Station. The net increase of Rs. 17,789 under "Miscellaneous" is due to the enhancement of fees levied on slaughtered animals. The incidence of municipal taxes per head of population fell from Rs. 0—14—2 to Rs. 0—8—2 in the year under report, the difference being due to the decrease in municipal revenues as explained above.

The total disbursements show a net increase in expenditure of Rs. 15,305 compared with the previous year, the actuals being respectively Rs. 1,78,889 and Rs. 1,63,584. A saving of Rs. 5,959 and Rs. 1,032 was effected by the abolition of the octroi establishment and reduction of the pay of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes.

Large increases will be observed under the following heads; namely Rs. 8,505 under "III Public Works (original works)" expended upon the deepening of two tanks: Rs. 3,340 under hospital charges, owing to the construction of a dispensary in the Bowring Civil Hospital compound for the treatment of out-patients and the erection of a new gateway; Rs. 1,123 under "Conservancy" and Rs. 1,922 under "Lighting" due respectively to the entertainment of a larger number of scavengers and an increase in the number of lamps.

A sum of Rs. 5,245 shown under "Reserve" was provided for unforeseen expenditure during the year. This was devoted to providing funds for the celebration of the Jubilee of Her Majesty, and for compensation paid for land taken up for a Hindu cemetery.

Continued attention has been paid to the sanitation of the Civil and Military Station; and the improvement of the markets has been under the consideration of the Municipal Commissioners.

The low figure of the death rate indicates that the sanitary condition of the town is fairly satisfactory.

7. Military.—The strength of the Bangalore Garrison has been increased by 2,743 men owing to the arrival of two native regiments from Burmah. The 12th Royal Lancers, after a residence of some years in the Station, embarked for England during the year, and were relieved by the 21st Hussars.

8. Weather and Crops.—The rain-fall was less than in the previous year by 10·46 inches.

9. Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures call for no special remark.

10. Revenue and Finance.—The receipts in the Resident's Treasury under all heads amounted to Rs. 85,89,417 and the payments to Rs. 85,18,459, the principal item on the receipt side being the Mysore subsidy. The hypothecation of the Mysore State Railway to the Southern Mahratta Railway and the appropriation of the proceeds to the liquidation of the famine loan of 80 lakhs reduced to a large extent the interest due upon that loan to the Government of India, a balance of Rs. 5,69,000 only remaining on 1st April 1887 to complete the liquidation of the loan. There was a change during the year in the method of accounting the expenditure in connection with the Mysore Residency. The accounts are now transferred to the books of the Comptroller, India Treasuries.

11. Local.—The gross revenue of the Civil and Military Station amounted to Rs. 4,56,138 against Rs. 3,77,255 in the previous year. The increase in revenue is mainly attributable to the payment during the year by the Durbar into the Resident's Treasury, of the toddy revenue inclusive of local cess due for the 3 years ending 1886—87, which amounted to Rs. 50,118 and to an increased consumption of arrack in the Station. The expenditure which amounted to Rs. 1,69,362 against Rs. 1,41,307 in 1886—87, was increased by the payment of a sum of Rs. 11,998 to the Durbar on account of the maintenance charges of the Civil and Military Station prisoners confined in the Bangalore Central Jail during the four years ending 31st March 1888, and by a payment of Rs. 7,181 in adjustment of the cost of maintenance of lunatics belonging to the Civil and Military Station in the Mysore State Asylum.

12. Vital Statistics.—The number of births registered during the year was 2,205 giving a rate per mille of 23·57. In the previous year it was 1,764, or 18·85 per mille. The deaths registered were 1,134 against 1,110 in 1886—87, showing a ratio of 12·12 per mille against 11·87. The mortality under fevers was as usual high; there were 45 fatal cases from cholera, but the stringent measures that were adopted as soon as the disease made its appearance, and the establishment of a Quarantine camp at Krishnarajapuram (about 6 miles from Bangalore on the Madras Railway line) tended to check the spread of the disease.

13. Hospitals and Dispensaries.—Twelve hundred and eighty-one in-patients and 17,335 out-patients were treated during the year in the Bowring Civil Hospital and Ulsur Dispensary. In the year preceding the numbers were 1,317 and 18,183 respectively.

14. Vaccination.—As regards vaccination the results of the year's operations show a decrease of 314 in the total number of persons vaccinated. The necessity for enforcing compulsory vaccination has been brought before the Commissioners, and a draft regulation on the subject has been submitted to the Government of India.

15. Education.—There has been no addition to the number of aided schools in the Station, which number 75. The attendance, however, has risen from 4,421 to 4,653. Towards education imperial funds contributed Rs. 25,106, municipal funds Rs. 5,624, and school fees Rs. 35,780. Of the grants-in-aid Rs. 26,524 go to support English instruction and Rs. 4,206 towards instruction in the vernaculars. Zenana work has been successfully carried on during the year in connection with the National Indian Association in England. The scope of the work is, however, at present very limited, owing probably to want of funds and agency.

The control and inspection of the educational work in Bangalore has been carried on, since the rendition, by the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore and his staff without allowances of any kind. The Officiating Resident has much pleasure in acknowledging here the good work done by Mr. Rice and his subordinates. Literature calls for no special remark. The number of presses has increased from 19 to 21.

PART II.

I. PHYSICAL AND POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY.

CHANGES IN THE ADMINISTRATION.

1. No change occurred in the form of administration of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, which, during the year under report, continued to be carried on by the Resident in Mysore on behalf of the Government of India.

Mr. D. Fitzpatrick, C. S. I., who acted as Resident during the absence on furlough of Sir Charles E. Bernard, K. C. S. I., gave over charge of the Residency on 10th October 1887, on his permanent appointment to the Chief Commissionership of Assam, and Sir Harry Prendergast, K. C. B., V. C., R. E., officiated as Resident during the remaining portion of the year under report.

II. ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

2. There are 14 villages in the Station covering an area of 5 miles and 123 acres, of which 5 with an area of 3 miles and 39 acres are held on Kayemgutta, Jodi and Sarvamanyam tenures. Of the 9 Government villages, i. e. villages in which assessment is paid direct to Government by land-holders, 7 have been surveyed and settled, and the remaining 2 which have not been surveyed include lands to the extent of 6 acres and 3 guntas made over to Government by the Madras Railway Company. They were given out for cultivation as a temporary measure at the survey rates of assessment. The revenue demand for the year was Rs 3,741—12—8, and the collections realized amounted to Rs. 3,752—5—1 including arrears of previous years collected.

3. During the year 3 acres and 12 guntas of land were taken up by the Station Municipality for the improvement of the Miller's Reservoir No. 3. No lands were taken up for cultivation, nor were any relinquished in the year under report.

4. The jamabandi was held by the Collector on the 28th February 1888, when the revenue accounts were checked and found to be carefully kept. The outstanding balance of revenue including local cess due on 31st March 1888 was Rs. 788. The boundary marks of survey fields are reported to be kept in good condition. The management of Govindoo Chetty's Chuttrum, for the upkeep of which a grant of Rs. 800 is annually contributed by the Government, was reported to have been properly conducted by the Trustee during the year. Travellers are fed in this institution under the superintendence of the Trustee, who furnishes monthly accounts to the Collector. In the temples which receive muzarayi assistance from the revenues of the Assigned Tract, the usual services were regularly performed during the year.

5. Colonel W. Hill, the Civil and Sessions Judge, having proceeded to Europe on furlough on the 1st May 1887, Colonel Magrath, the Collector in the Civil and Military Station, was appointed to act Civil and Sessions Judge, his office being filled by Mr. Howetson, the District Superintendent of Police, who was relieved by Mr. Fawcett, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Ganjam, whose services were placed at the disposal of the Resident in Mysore by the Madras Government.

III. PROTECTION.

COURSE OF LEGISLATURE.

6. The only change was the introduction of the following enactments into the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore:—

(1) Section 6 of Act XIII of 1875 (an Act to amend the law relating to probates and letters of Administration).

(2) Part III (Sections 52 to 57 both inclusive) of the Specific Relief Act I of 1877.

7. It was also declared in Foreign Department Notifications Nos. 1652 and 1653, dated 13th April 1887, that the decrees of the Civil and Revenue Courts of Mysore might be executed in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore as if they had been granted by the Courts in the Station, and also that the provisions of Section 650A of Act XIV of 1882 (the Code of Civil Procedure) as extended to the Civil and Military Station should apply to the Civil Courts of Mysore.

8. Slight amendments were made by the Government of India in Sections 195 and 208 of the Bangalore Municipal Regulations of 1883.

POLICE.

9. The extent of jurisdiction is the same as last year; Civil and Military Station 12·40 square miles; and the line of Railway from Bangalore City to Kamasamoodrum.

10. Taking the population of the Civil and Military Station to be as it was in 1881, viz. 93,540, the proportion of Police to the population has been 1 Policeman to every 329·36 persons.

The proportion of Police to area has been 22·90 Police men to a square mile.

*1 of previous year.
†7 of do.

In the year there were registered in all 276 cases under the Penal Code; of these 28 were committed in the Railway premises.

No cases under class I.

There was practically no increase in Police cases under class II; for 3 cases were refused investigation, and with two murders in the 12th Regiment lines the Police had nothing to do. The latter were registered merely for record.

There has been a decrease by 4 in class III, in the 31 cases registered entrance was effected by force, i. e. by making holes in only two. In 11 cases no property was lost; in 12 cases the value of property lost averaged less than 10. One case—a very serious one—is described in para 17.

The increase under class V is chiefly due to 23 cases being registered against only 4 accused persons, viz:—

10 cases against one bill collector.
6 ,, ,, ,, ,,
5 ,, of petty thefts against a boy.
2 ,, ,, ,,

Under class VI there has been a decrease, perhaps because more latrines and urinals have been provided for the public, the Police however might with advantage act to a greater degree against persons committing nuisances and also in regard to obstruction.

The large increase in the amount of stolen property is owing to the large case of house-breaking (vide para 17) in which 22,630 worth of property was lost.

In one case under class V, property valued at 2,647 was alleged to have been stolen (vide para 17). The Police reported the complaint as false, but were unable to have it removed from the file. But for this case the percentage of property recovered to property lost would have been 97—7—3 instead of 88—3—11 as shown above.

Murder.—At about 8-15 P. M. on 1st August 1887 Jemadar Kondiah of the 12th Regiment shot Subedar Abdool Guffoor of the same Regiment, and immediately shut himself up in his house in the lines. There were with him his wife, mother-in-law, and his aunt and 2 children. The Military took the case into their own hands and put a guard round the house. About noon next day three shots were fired in the house, and the Jemadar called out he had shot his wife; at 1 he let out his aunt and 2 children; and at 2 shot himself three times through the body as he sat in a chair.

House-breaking.—On the night of 13th August 1887 the shop of Abdool Satar Sait was broken into and jewels worth 22,630 were stolen. On the 22nd two Mahomedans were arrested in Madras, by the Madras Police, while trying to sell part of the stolen jewels. Arrest of these two men led to the recovery of the whole of the property, and their conviction to 7 and 1 years respectively. Of Rs. 1,000 reward offered by Abdool Satar Sait for recovery of his property, two-third went to Madras and one-third to the Bangalore Civil and Military Station Police.

Theft.—On the 22nd March complaint of the loss of property worth Rs. 2,647—8—7 was made. The property was kept in 2 iron safes the keys of which were with complainant's agent who slept on the premises, in Chandy Chowk road. Police found the case false and referred it as such. Complainant pressed a case of criminal breach of trust against his agent, who was charged, committed to Sessions and acquitted, the Judge being of opinion the theft may have taken place.

Dacoity.—For 10 years there has been no case of dacoity. But a dacoity took place on the 16th August just after dark, close to Jeevanahully, near the boundary of the Civil and Military Station; some 8 dacoits attacked 2 women and a man and robbed them of all they had, Rs. 84 in all. Previous to this there had been several similar cases on the outskirts of Bangalore City. This case remains undetected.

Enlistments.—Thirty-one were enlisted.

Of those 24 can read and write and others can speak more than one language. It is not easy to get good recruits.

General health.—The general health of the force has been good.

The number in Hospital is 48 against 39 of last year, and the percentage is 1·26 against 1·02.

Promotion and Rewards.—Twenty- three men were rewarded by promotion.

Two officers were by money rewards.

One-hundred and twelve by good marks.

Thirty by good conduct badges.

23. Police School.—Twenty-nine Constables underwent a course of instruction in the Police School in the criminal laws and rules in force in the Station. Of these 23 were examined and passed out fit for duty, 1 resigned while under instruction, and the remaining 5 were retained in the school to complete the course.

State of Education.—Forty-eight officers and 202 men can read and write.

24. Armament of the Force.—Two-hundred ninety-seven officers and men have been provided with batons. No swords or firearms are in use with the Force.

25. Construction and Repairs.—One Chief Constable's quarters, part of another and 10 huts were constructed during the year. 3 head-stations and 7 sub-stations and 108 huts were white and color washed, and sundry repairs where needed were executed.

26. Result of inspection of Books and Tanahs.—The inspection of books and records of all stations were made by the District Superintendent of Police, and necessary orders as to the proper keeping of them, where needed, were issued. The Police Stations have been almost daily visited by him.

27. Relations of the Police and Magistracy.—The relations between the police and magistracy have been good.

28. Concluding Remarks.—There have been the following changes in the office of the District Superintendent of Police :—

From 1st January to 5th January 1887 Mr. E. Hewetson, District Superintendent of Police.

It is satisfactory to note that the number of applications disposed of during the year was larger than that of 1886, the figures for the two years being 1,533 and 1,239 respectively. The total number pending at the close of the year was 138.

59. Out of 252 persons arrested and brought before the Civil Courts on warrants, only 8 were sent to jail.

60. There has been a fall in the amount realized in execution of decrees as compared with the figures of 1886. The decrease which is noticeable both in respect of the amount paid voluntarily into Court and of that realized after issue of process is not ascribable to any special cause.

Paid in after issue of process ...	33,939	22,447-15-4
Total.....	1,01,818	66,636-13-4

61. Application for declaration of Insolvency.—Twenty four applications were filed for declaration of insolvency, of which 4 were transferred to another Province. Of the remaining 20, 10 were granted, a receiver, however, being appointed in only two cases. 8 applications were rejected without penal proceedings being taken, and the remaining 2 were left pending at the close of the year. The number of insolvents discharged under Section 355 of the Civil Procedure Code was 10.

62. Process.—Nine thousand three hundred and fifty-five processes realizing Rs. 5,254—4—0 were issued against 8,903 processes realizing Rs. 5,671—4—0 in 1886. The net profits after deducting the cost of the process-serving establishment amounted to Rs. 4,070—3—1, or Rs. 453—5—8 less than in the previous year.

Resident's Court.

63. Appeals.—During the year under report there were 11 appeals for disposal including the one pending at the close of the previous year.

Value of property.—The value of the property involved in these appeals amounted to Rs. 15,247—3—11. The highest value of the property involved in appeals instituted was Rs. 4,429—0—0.

Disposal of Appeals.—The results of appeals are exhibited in the annexed statement.

Average duration of Appeals.—The average duration of appeals was 61·4 days as against 74·26 days in 1886.

Average value of Appeals.—The cost incurred by suitors in the appeals amounted to Rs. 113—0—6 per suit.

64. Miscellaneous Appeals.—Three miscellaneous appeals were filed during the year and all were disposed of.

65. Second Appeals.—Three second appeals were instituted from the decision of the Munsiff, of which one was disposed of, and two were left pending at the close of the year.

66. Miscellaneous Applications.—There were 7 miscellaneous applications for disposal, of which 6 were for revision under Section 622 of the Civil Procedure Code and 1 for review under Section 623, Civil Procedure Code.

REGISTRATION.

67. The work of registration of documents in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore was as before performed by the Registrar and special Sub-Registrar of the Station.

One-thousand four hundred and seventy-six documents of all kinds were registered during the year against 1,504 in the past year, thus showing a decrease of 28 documents or 1·86 per cent. The following table exhibits the operations of this department for 1886—87 and 1887—88.

Under the head of documents affecting immoveable property an increase under compulsory and a decrease under optional registration is apparent.

The number of documents relating to moveable property registered during the year exceeded that of the previous year by thirteen.

68. The aggregate value of immoveable property transferred by registered documents during the year amounted to Rs. 7,18,982 against 7,88,360, and that of moveable property Rs. 99,360 against Rs. 97,418 in the previous year. The percentage of fees on the value of immoveable property was annas 8 pies 8 against annas 8 pies 3 in 1886—87, and on moveable property it was annas 3 pies 4 against annas 3 pies 7.

69. The financial results are given on the margin. The percentage of expenditure to income was 36·24 against 34·56 in the previous year, the increase in expenditure being chiefly due to the falling off in the receipts of the year.

Receipts ...	4,774	4	0	4,586	4	0
Expenditure ...	1,650	0	11	1,662	6	0

70. Twenty documents presented for registration during the year were refused owing to the minority of the executants. As in the previous year, there were no appeals nor prosecutions under the Act during the year under report.

71. Ten documents were impounded on account of insufficient stamp duty, and three documents were registered on payment of fine under section 34 of the Act. Twelve documents remained unclaimed at the close of the year, of which seven have remained uncleared for over two years and five for less than two years. Twenty-one copies of sale certificates were received from the Civil Court and filed, and twenty were presented for registration by the holders.

72. No avoidable delay occurred in the registration of documents during the year; of the 1,476 documents registered 1,446 were ready for return on the following day.

73. The working of the Registration Department appears on the whole to have been satisfactory.

MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION.

74. The only change of any importance made during the year under report in the Bangalore Municipal Regulations of 1883 was the amendment, by the Government of India, of sections 195 and 208, so as to extend the liability to the payment of the lighting rate to the owners as well as to the occupiers of buildings, tenements, &c., in the Civil and Military Station.

75. The proposal to introduce a Municipal Act drafted by the Commissioners on the lines of the Madras Municipal Act, 1883, was again discussed, but Sir Harry Prendergast concurring in the opinion recorded by Mr. Fitzpatrick before his departure, considered it the better policy to amend the Regulations from time to time until eventually it should become desirable to revise the Code altogether.

76. For the general convenience and with a view to increasing the interest of the public in the election of the Commissioners, rule 7 of the election rules, which provided for the election of Commissioners as vacancies occurred, was amended so as to secure a general election of the Commissioners every two years. The first general election was fixed for August 1888, as the term of office of the majority of the Commissioners expired about that time.

77. An amendment in bye-law No. 48 has made it compulsory on drivers to affix lighted lamps to their vehicles on moonlight nights instead of, as before, on dark nights only.

78. There were 13 (12 ordinary and 1 special) meetings of the Commissioners during the year, besides two meetings of a sub committee. The attendance of the elected Commissioners was on the whole good; three members, however, failed to attend more than one-third of the meetings.

79. The income of the year under report excluding the cash balance brought forward from the preceding year amounted to Rs. 1,68,617, or Rs. 16,712 less than in 1886—87. The following statement shows the actual receipts under the several heads during the years 1886—87 and 1887—88.

I.	Octroi	39,060	...	...	39,060
II.	Tax on houses, buildings and lands	33,270	31,544	...	1,726
	Lighting rate	...	6,185	6,185	...
III.	Tax on professions and trades	10,276	9,825	...	451
	Liquor license fees	29,779	35,552	5,773	...
IV.	Rents of buildings and lands	10,968	10,040	...	928
IX.	Extraordinary (1) Refunds and Recoveries (2) Interest on securities and loans	651	399	...	252
X.	Fines	1,542	1,367	...	175
XI.	Pounds	1,665	1,735	70	...
XII.	Miscellaneous	11,714	11,589	...	125
	Slaughter house fees	2,350	20,264	17,914	...
XIII.	Transfers and contributions	44,054	40,117	...	3,937
	Total.....	1,85,329	1,68,617	29,942	46,654
	Net decrease.....				16,712

80. The octroi was abolished with effect from 1st April 1887, and to compensate the loss sustained by the measure sanction was given to the enhancement of the fees levied on slaughtered animals, to the introduction of the lighting rate, and to the levy of license fees on shops for the sale of tobacco and betel-leaves. This last proposal has not been adopted, as on a further consideration of the subject it was found that such a measure was not feasible without an amendment of the Municipal Regulations, which step was considered inadvisable. The income from the lighting rate (Rs. 6,185) and from enhanced fees on slaughtered animals, amounted to Rs. 23,914, or Rs. 15,146 less than the receipts of the previous year under "Octroi." Against this deficiency a sum of Rs. 5,959 saved by the abolition of the octroi establishment may be set, thus shewing a real deficit of only Rs. 9,187.

81. A decrease of Rs. 1,726 will be observed in the receipts under "Tax on houses, buildings and lands" (including mohatarfa tax on oil-mills and carts) as compared with last year. The decrease is due to arrears in the collection of house tax (Rs. 3,012) in the year under report. The year began with an uncollected balance of Rs. 529—9—0, and the demand was, by a close scrutiny exercised during the year in revising the house lists, increased by Rs. 873—4—0. The existence of so large an arrear is not however satisfactory, and it is to be hoped that the Municipality will use their utmost endeavours to collect each year's demand within the year.

82. There was a small decrease of Rs. 451 under "Tax on professions and trades," which is due to the non-adjustment during the year of a sum of Rs. 1,907, payable by Government on account of the military officers exercising profession in the Civil and Military Station. An adjustment of the demand within the year would have shown an increase of Rs. 1,452 under this head.

83. The increase of Rs. 5,773 under "Liquor license fees" is contributed partly by the greater number of licenses issued during the year, and partly by the increased realization on account of duty levied on excess sales of arrack and beer in the Station.

84. Under "Rents of buildings and lands" will be observed a decrease of Rs. 928, owing partly to the closing of the Travellers' Bungalow to the public on the 1st March 1887, but chiefly to the credit during the previous year of prepayments of market stalls' rents due for the year under review. The advance payments for the following year (1888—89) have been taken into accounts of the year to which they belong.

85. The receipts under "Miscellaneous" are of a fluctuating and uncertain nature. The net increase of Rs. 17,789 under this head (including slaughter house fees) is due to the enhancement of the fees levied on slaughtered animals consequent on the abolition of the octroi. The fees amounted to Rs. 20,264 against Rs. 2,350 in the previous year.

86. The head "Transfers and contributions" comprises the following:—

(a).	Grant-in-aid from the Assigned Tract revenues for the maintenance of Suburban roads	5,025
(b).	Grant-in-aid from the Madras Government for the maintenance of the main sewer	1,200
(c).	Do do for the maintenance of Military roads	6,300
(d).	Land revenue of the Civil and Military Station assigned to the Municipality	3,250
(e)	Local Cess collections on abkari and land revenue ..	24,342
		40,117

87. The decrease of Rs. 3,937 as compared with the amount received during the previous year is owing to the Local cess collections for 1885—86 having been paid to the Municipality during the year 1886—87.

88. The total disbursements during the year amounted to Rs. 1,78,889, or Rs. 10,272 more than the actual receipts of the year. The excess expenditure was met from the cash balance of Rs. 33,565 brought forward from the previous year, leaving an unexpended balance of Rs. 23,293 at the close of the year under report. The expenditure was greater than that of the preceding year by Rs. 15,305, as will be seen from the appended statement.

89. The decrease of Rs. 5,959 under head "I Collection—Octroi" is due, as stated before, to the abolition of the octroi establishment from 1st April 1887. The small increase of Rs. 265 under "Head Office charges" is attributed to the increase of pay given to a few of the officials of the establishment. Under "Salary of officers" will be observed a decrease of Rs. 1,032, owing to savings consequent on the death of Mr. James Manley, Assessor and Collector of Taxes, on the 18th July 1887, and to the appointment of his successor on a reduced salary, as also to the decreased expenditure on account of allowances to officers on furlough, which during the year amounted to Rs. 200 against 424 in 1886—87.

90. The increase of Rs. 8,505 under "Public Works (b) Original works" is attributed to the continued attention paid to the improvement of the water-supply of Bangalore. The cost of improving the main sewer and drains and of constructing latrines amounted to Rs. 10,310, and a sum of Rs. 6,490 was expended in the deepening of the Miller's and Hakitimmanhalli tanks and in the removal of silt from the upper Ulsur tank. The small increase of Rs. 558 under "C. Repairs" is due to the works executed in connection with drains and wells, the expenditure on this account being Rs. 1,239 against Rs. 637 in the previous year.

91. Under "V. Education" will be observed an increase of Rs. 538, chiefly due to the building grants made during the year. The grant-in-aid to schools exclusive of the building grants amounted to Rs. 5,224 during the year under report.

92. An increase of Rs. 3,340 will be observed under "VI. Charitable grants", which is mainly due to the expenditure of Rs. 2,687 upon the construction of a dispensary on the Hospital grounds for the treatment of out-patients and upon the alteration of the gate entrance to the Hospital, and partly to the increased expenditure under contingencies on account of bedding and clothing to the patients in the Hospital.

93. Under head "VII Conservancy" is shown an increase of Rs. 1,123, due to the fact that a larger number of scavengers were entertained, and that night soil carts of an improved pattern were introduced during the year under report.

94. The increase of Rs. 1,922 under head IX "Lighting" is accounted for by the increase made in the number of lamps from 647 to 695 during the year. An expenditure of Rs. 966 against 637 in 1886—87 was incurred in the purchase of lamp posts. The cost of lighting was however reduced during the year from Rs. 1—7—0 to Rs. 1—4—0 per lamp.

95. Under head "XI. Extraordinary—Fairs and Contributions" will be seen a small increase of Rs. 185, due to the prizes of greater value awarded during the year at the annual market show with the object of encouraging competition and of improving the market supplies of the Station.

96. "Other miscellaneous items" included in head "XII Miscellaneous" are made up of printing and advertisement charges (Rs. 2,270), auditor's fees (300), donation to the Girdlestone Ward for Incurables (1,200), hackney carriage establishments (726), planting and watering trees (1,073), reporter's fees (350), and expenditure of a non-recurring nature such as law charges.

97. An increase of Rs. 5,245 will be observed under "XIII Reserve." Provision is usually made under this head for all unforeseen charges. The principal items of expenditure during the year were (a) compensation for land taken up for a Hindu burial ground (3,602), charges in connection with the celebration of Her Majesty the Queen Empress' Jubilee (3,563,)., fencing vacant plots of ground (2,177), quarantine and other charges (448), and damages paid in connection with the Shoolay sewer (714). Other charges of a minor nature amounted to Rs. 13,162.

98. The sanitation of the Civil and Military Station received the usual attention during the year. A sub-committee composed of the President and two Commissioners was formed for the purpose of supervising the markets, and it is in contemplation to form the Commissioners of the respective divisions into sub-committees in order to aid the President in preparing a project for the improvement of the markets in the Station. The introduction of an improved pattern of night soil carts has been successful. The condition of public latrines was improved as far as possible during the year, both by increasing the means of ventilation and by slight alteration in the building to effect the removal of the night soil from the outside instead from the inner side of the latrine. Endeavours are being made to induce the owners of private houses to construct their latrines on the standard plan adopted by the Municipality, and in cases where the owners are too poor to incur the cost, the Municipal Commissioners propose to give them some assistance.

99. Considerable improvements have been made in the appearance of the town by enclosing vacant sites with wire fencing and laying out foot-paths on the sides of the roads. Projects for improving the beef, poultry and fish stalls and for the construction of flights of steps to the Ulsur and Miller's tanks and certain other useful works have been sanctioned by the Resident at the close of the year under report.

100. There were 45 deaths from cholera during the year. Strenuous efforts were taken by the Municipality in conjunction with the Petta (Town) Municipal Board to arrest the spread of the disease. A quarantine camp was established at Krishnarajpuram, a Station on the Madras Railway about six miles from Bangalore, and a hospital assistant was specially deputed to make a house to house inspection in the Station. The premises where deaths occurred from this epidemic were thorougly disinfected and lime washed.

101. The incidence of municipal taxes per head of population fell from Rs. 0-14-2 to Rs. 0—8—2 in the year under review, the difference being due to the decrease in receipts as explained above from Rs. 82,606 to Rs. 47,554.

MILITARY.

102. The strength of the Garrison of Bangalore, both European and Native, amounted to 5,751 Combatant Officers and men against 3,008 in the previous year, the increase being due chiefly to the arrival of two Native Regiments (1st Madras Pioneers and 25th M. I.) from Burmah.

The 12th Royal Lancers stationed in Bangalore for some years past embarked for England during the year and were relieved by the 21st Hussars.

The following were the troops quartered in Bangalore at the close of the year under report:—

European—

Royal Horse Artillery	M. B.
Cavalry	21st Hussars.
Royal Artillery	I. 4 and P. I.
Royal Engineers	K. Company.
Infantry	2nd Oxford Light Infantry.

Native—

Cavalry	Depot 1st Madras Lancers.
Engineers	5 Companies, Queen's Own Sappers and Miners.
Infantry	1st Madras Pioneers. 12th M. I. 25th M. I. Depot 32nd M. I.

The total cost of the Garrison including contingencies amounted to Rs. 21,93,383 against Rs. 14,37,104 in 1886—87.

IV. PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

AGRICULTURE.

103. The crops chiefly cultivated in the arable land within the Civil and Military Station were rice, ragi, gram, sugar-cane and vegetables. The total area cultivated amounted to 732 acres, of which more than half, about 400 acres, were sown with ragi. The extent under vegetable cultivation was nearly 130 acres.

The land revenue was Rs. 3,752 against Rs. 3,607 in 1886—87.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

104. The climate of the Station during the year under report was favourable to public health, notwithstanding that the rainfall was less than that of the previous year by 10·46 inches.

105. The following table shows the mean temperature, humidity per cent and the rain fall, in each month during the year 1887—88.

Months.	Mean temperature.	Humidity per cent.	Rainfall.
			Inches.	Cents.

106. The mean temperature was 72·3, and the humidity 72 per cent as compared with 72·6 and 70 respectively in 1886—87.

The hottest months were April and May giving a mean of 91·3.

The coldest months were November and December having a mean of 61·1, thus producing between the hottest and coldest months a range of 30·2.

The coldest day observed was the 19th December at sunrise being 52·9.

The hottest day noticed was on the 20th April at 1 P. M. being 96·9.

Between the extremes of heat and cold there was therefore a range of 44·0.

The greatest monthly range was in February, 28·2.

The greatest diurnal range was 37·8 in February .

The least diurnal range was 22·0 in July.

The wet bulb thermometer during the hot months had an average depression of 9°-8.′

The rainfall gauged at the Bangalore Meteorological Observatory was 34 inches and 6 cents. The fall was heaviest in October, the quantity guaged being 9 inches and 6 cents, and the lowest in the month of March with a fall of only 12 cents.

107. Rain fell on 110 days and the appended chart shows the rainfall for the past 4 years.

TRADE.

108. Statements II (1) in the appendix give particulars of imports and exports of the Civil and Military Station, for the year under report.

Among the imports a slight falling off is observed in tobacco, betel-leaves and cocoanut, but in most of the other articles mentioned in the return including rice, ragi, cotton thread, gold, silver and hides, there was a perceptible increase.

Under exports, increase is apparent in the export of wheat, green-gram, chillies, jaggory, gingelly oil, cotton thread, gold and silver. Figures are not rendered in respect of coffee, cardamoms, cotton, tobacco, silk, cocoanut, and betel-leaves under exports, and cotton and silk under imports.

MANUFACTURES.

109. No manufacture of any importance is carried on in the Assigned Tract, the only mill calling for mention is the "Woollen Cotton and Silk Mills" worked under the agency of Messrs. Binny & Co., Madras.

The mills afforded during the year under report employment to 86 persons daily, and the value of the blankets and jhools turned out amounted to Rs. 21,327.

V. REVENUE AND FINANCE.

IMPERIAL.

110. The Bangalore Treasury commenced the year 1887—88, with a cash balance of Rs. 15,44,892 and closed with Rs. 16,15,850, the receipts and payments having been Rs. 85,89,417 and Rs. 85,18,459 respectively. The large balances are due to the receipt of the Mysore subsidy, which is payable by that State on the 31st January and 31st March of each year.

111. The following is a statement of the items which made up the receipts and payments of the year, and the corresponding figures of 1886—87 are added for purposes of comparison.

112. The civil revenue may be classified under the heads given below, and the principal differences between the two years may be summarised as follows. There was an improvement in the proceeds of the income tax; but the amount entered in 1887—88 does not represent the full increase as owing to a change in the method of accounting, the recoveries from the Residency are credited in the books of the Comptroller, India Treasuries. The fall in the interest payable by the Mysore State on the loan of 80 lakhs is due to the purchase of the Mysore State Railway by the Southern Mahratta Railway Company, by which the debt due to the British Government was largely liquidated, a balance of Rs. 5,69,000 only remaining on 1st April 1887.

The subscriptions to Military funds were greater, and to Civil funds less than in 1886—87 from the principal appointments having been held by military officers instead of covenanted civilians. The other items do not call for special remark.

Subsidy from the Mysore State	24,50,000	24,50,000

113. The following is an abstract of the civil expenditure under service heads, and it will be observed that the expenditure on account of the Residency has been omitted in 1887—88. This is due to the method of accounting, noticed in the preceding para, by which the amounts are transferred to the books of the Comptroller, India Treasuries. These amounts in 1887—88 aggregated Rs. 95,504, and are included under the head, Account current with India, in the statement appended to para 111 above. As regards the other items in the following abstract the diminished amount of ecclesiastical charges is the result of one of the Chaplains of Bangalore having been on leave. The increase in the civil pensions is caused by new pensioners. The other items do not present any special features requiring explanation.

	1887—88	1886—87
Salaries and allowances of the Resident, Assistant Resident, Surgeon and Treasury Officer	Included under India.	75,940
Establishments of the Resident, Assistant Resident, Surgeon and Treasury Officer	Included under India.	19,084
Travelling allowances and contingencies	Included under India.	12,015
Potty construction and repairs	Included under India.	6,450
Ecclesiastical charges	42,435	50,219
Political Pensions	14,353	14,330
Civil Pensions	59,607	53,923
Officers of other districts and provinces on leave in Bangalore... ...	10,994	7,160
Annual donations to R. C. Chapels in Mysore	300	300
Annual grant to the Bangalore Pensioners' Widows and Orphans' Fund ...	...	600
Grant to Orphan Asylum	300	300
Jubilee celebration	...	7,579
Income tax charges	62	585
Sundry small items	6,409	5,074
Total Rs.....	1,34,460	2,53,559

114. The following are the principal variations under debt and remittance transactions, as embodied in the statement appended to para 111 above. As remarked in para 110 the largest receipts comprise the Mysore subsidy which is realized in two months of the year, and the sums so received are drawn away to the Presidency Treasury. In 1887—88 the amount so withdrawn exceeded by Rs. 5,25,695, the corresponding remittances in 1886—87. On the other hand, at other seasons of the year, it becomes necessary to supply funds to Bangalore, and this is done as far as possible by means of supply bills. There was a good demand for these bills during the year under review, and they brought to the treasury Rs. 3,53,523 more than the sales effected in 1886—87. The largest portion of these bills were drawn upon Madras, the actual figure being Rs. 18,50,000 in 1887—88, against Rs. 14,89,000 in 1886—87. The large sums entered in 1887—88 under "Account current with Mysore State," are due to the adjustments which have become necessary on account of the Mysore State Railway, between the Southern Mahratta Railway Company and the Government of His Highness. In the transactions connected with the Assigned Tract, there was an increased receipt of Rs. 74,000 from arrack and toddy revenue, and an increased charge of Rs. 11,998 for maintenance of prisoners in the Mysore Government Jails, as well as Rs. 8,000 on account of lunatics. Pensionary contributions from Mysore officers show a continuous decrease. As remarked in para 113 the transfer of the charges of the Mysore Residency, from the service head

"25 Political" swelled the charges under India in 1887—88. The account with Bombay in 1886—87 was unusually heavy, as it included Rs. 80,000 on account of coin supplied from that Province for the use of the Mysore Durbar. District Savings Banks having been transferred to the Postal Department from 1st June 1886, there were no transactions under this head in 1887—88. The high expenditure under State Railways is due to the extension of the lines. The head, "Other items," is a fluctuating quantity.

V. REVENUE AND FINANCE.

LOCAL.

115. The gross revenue of the Civil and Military Station for the year 1887—88 amounted to Rs. 4,56,138 against Rs. 3,77,255 in the previous year. After deducting Rs. 11,546 being the charges against income, the net receipts amounted to Rs. 4,44,592 or Rs. 78,805 more than the net receipts of 1886—87.

116. The total expenditure under all heads amounted to Rs. 1,69,362 against Rs. 1,44,307 in the previous year, and the balance was Rs. 2,75,230 or Rs. 53,750 more than in the preceding year.

117. The statement appended below gives the details of net receipts and expenditure for 1887—88 compared with that for 1886—87.

Land revenue	—1,449	—1,104	Law and justice	43,442	55,504

Miscellaneous	450	2,290	Miscellaneous	147	2,116
Oil mill	5	5	Total Rs.....	1,44,307	1,69,362
Total Rs.....	3,65,787	4,44,592	Balance	2,21,480	2,75,230

118. The land revenue was Rs. 3,752, but the refunds and charges against income amounted to Rs. 4,856; hence the deficit of Rs. 1,104.

119. The increase of Rs. 74,324 under "Excise on spirits and drugs" is attributable partly to the payment during the year under report by the Durbar into the Resident's Treasury of the toddy revenue, inclusive of local cess due for the 3 years ending 1886—87 amounting to Rupees 50,118, and also to an increased consumption of arrack in the Civil and Military Station. This latter increase is due to the Durbar having raised the selling price of arrack outside the Civil and Military Station to the rates prevailing within the Station, thereby removing the inducement to resort to the cheaper shop outside the Station limits.

Under "Miscellaneous" will be found an increase of about Rs. 1,800 due to the recoveries made from Colonel Magrath in adjustment of the advance received by him in England while on furlough.

120. The expenditure of Rs. 55,504 under "Law and Justice" includes a sum of Rs. 11,998 paid, with the sanction of the Government of India, to the Durbar on account of the maintenance charges of the prisoners sentenced by the Civil and Military Station Courts and confined in the Bangalore Central Jail during the four years ending 31st March 1888. The increase of about Rs. 5,500 under "Education" is due to the increased special building grants sanctioned by the Resident during the year. The large increase perceptible under "Medical" is owing to the payment of a sum of Rs. 7,181—3—0 to the Mysore Durbar in adjustment of the cost of maintenance of the lunatics of the Civil and Military Station in the Mysore State Asylum at Bangalore from 1st April 1884 to 31st March 1887. At the instance of the Government of India, the question whether this amount should not be refunded by the Civil and Military Station Municipality and whether future charges on account of lunatics and lepers belonging to the Civil and Military Station should not be borne from municipal funds, has been referred for the consideration of the Board. The excess expenditure observed under "Stationery and Printing" is attributable to the payment of Rs. 1,778—4—7 on account of stationery purchased from the Madras Stationery Depot for use of the offices of the Civil and Military Station. The item "Miscellaneous" includes a sum of Rs. 1,888 paid to the Durbar under arrangements sanctioned by the Government of India towards the liquidation of the loan made by the Mysore Government to the Bishop Cotton's Schools and College, Bangalore.

VI. VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL SERVICES.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

121. The total number of births registered in the Station during the year under report was 2,205 against 1,764 in the preceding year, or in the ratio of 23·57 per mille of population against 18·85. The proportion of male children born to every 100 of female births was 106·46 against 106·80 in the previous year. Births exceeded deaths by 11·45 per 1,000 of population.

122. The number of deaths registered in the Station during the past year amounted to 1,134 against 1,110 in the preceding year, showing a ratio of 12·12 per mille of population against 11·87. The mortality amongst females exceeded that of males by 22.

123. The highest mortality was in the month of March (117) and the lowest in June (81), while in the previous year the highest was in August (131) and the lowest in December (64).

124. In respect of age, the mortality was as last year heaviest under 1 year and the lowest between 6 and 12 years, the figures being 177 and 15 and 125 and 22 males and females respectively.

125. According to classes the highest rate of mortality was among "other classes," which include Europeans, Eurasians and Native Christians, and which gave a death rate of 13·93 per 1,000 of population. Next come "Mahomedans' with 12·24, and lastly "Hindus" with a death rate of 11·57 per mille of population.

126. The following comparative statement shows the number of deaths from different causes with ratio per 1,000 of population for the past and preceding years.

Diseases.	1886—87		1887—88.
Cholera	...	...	45 or	·48

Injuries	25 „	·27	26 „	·28
All other causes	686 „	7·33	667 „	7·13

127. From the foregoing it will be seen that the highest rate of mortality was as usual under "Fevers"; bowel complaints came next in the order of frequency. Cholera contributed 45 deaths against a complete absence of the disease in 1886, and small pox gave a death rate of ·10 against ·24 in the preceding year. "All other causes" included the various diseases not noted above.

128. The services of the supernumerary Hospital Assistant alluded to in the last report were utilized during the prevalence of cholera and small pox, for special duty in connection therewith, and made available at other times, for extra duty in the Bowring Hospital and in supervising the work of the Vaccinators.

MEDICAL RELIEF.

129. As heretofore the Bowring Civil Hospital and the Ulsur Dispensary afforded gratuitous medical aid to the public during the past year.

130. The total number of persons treated and died, with percentage of deaths from the most common diseases in the Bowring Civil Hospital for the past 5 years, is given below.

Diseases.	1883.			1884.			1885.			1886.			1887.

131. The number of admissions from fevers was 262 in excess of that of the preceding year. General debility, respiratory affections and ulcers also gave an increase of 107, 52 and 45 respectively, while diarrhœa and dysentery showed a decrease of 210 and 119.

Out of 18 admissions into the Hospital, for cholera, there were 15 deaths; and of 13 cases of small pox treated only two proved fatal.

132. The majority of the cases of cholera were from among pilgrims returning from Tripati where the disease was prevailing, and all of whom from being more or less destitute and in a moribund state, quickly succumbed on their admission to Hospital. The establishment of quarantine at Krishnarajpuram and other measures adopted at the time were effective in staying the spread of the disease. The majority of the casualties occurred among paupers and destitutes picked up by the Police and brought to Hospital either in a dying or hopeless condition from privation and disease.

133. The following are the numbers treated in the Hospital and Dispensary during the past 5 years:—

					In.	Out.
1883	..	..	..	..	1,622	21,733
1884	..	.	..	..	1,412	20,355
1885	..	..	..	..	1,136	17,329
1886	..	..	..	..	1,317	18,183
1887	..	..	..	..	1,281	17,335

Of the 1,281 in-door patients 296 were Europeans and Eurasians, and of the 17,335 out-door patients 2,563 were Europeans.

134. Twenty-three major and 30 minor operations were performed against 40 and 47 in the previous year. With regard to the decrease chiefly in major operations, as compared with the preceding year, it may be considered to be due to the following causes: viz.,

1st.—that many of the admissions for serious injuries to limbs, which heretofore would seem to call for operation, were treated on conservative principles, and the limbs saved;

2ndly.—operation was in other cases not undertaken where it was thought that from one cause or another the result would not justify its adoption; and 3rdly.—that among cases where operative interference was called for, instances occurred of persons objecting and being permitted to leave Hospital at their own accord uninterfered with.

135. A detailed statement of the major operations performed is appended.

136. The new building erected for the purpose of a dispensary, which was under construction at the beginning of last year, was completed and opened to the public on 3rd October 1887.

Ulsur Dispensary.

137. The total number that were treated at this institution amounted to 5,689 against 6,177 showing a decrease of 488 from the total treated in 1886. Of the above 5,689, 5,205 attended personally and 484 were represented by friends.

138. Of the diseases treated, those in order of frequency are as follows:—

Respiratory affections (1,108), eye (501,) and skin diseases (439), ague (293) worms (277), injuries (253), rheumatic affections (204), abscess (194), diarrhœa (191) ear affections (191), and dysentery (136).

139. According to sexes there were 2,164 males, 1,394 females and 2,131 children, against 2,181 males, 1,476 females and 2,520 children respectively in the previous year.

SANITATION.

140. The sanitation of the Station has, as heretofore, been attended to by the Municipality, which, judging from the comparatively low death rate and the non-prevalence of epidemic disease to any large extent over previous years, may be considered on the whole as fairly satisfactory.

141. Besides 4,472 running feet of V shaped drains and 323 feet of box drains having been laid down, 6 latrines were constructed in populous localities, and the beds of 2 reservoirs were deepened during the year.

VACCINATION.

142. The two municipal vaccinators performed as usual the entire work of vaccination in the Station during the year under report.

The total number of cases operated on amounted to 1,779 being 314 less than in the previous year. This decrease is mainly due to the people's prejudices against vaccination, (particularly during the prevalence of small pox) and in a measure to their objection to allow vaccine lymph to be taken from subjects, who have been successfully operated on, thereby limiting the extention of vaccination in a material manner. The introduction, therefore, of a compulsary Vaccination Act for this Station is imperatively called for.

The successful cases from primary vaccination were 1,734 against 1,792, or 99·42 per cent of total vaccinated, or 18·86 per 1,000 of population.

143. The average number vaccinated by each vaccinator was 889·50 against 1046·50 in 1886.

Of the total number of primary successful cases 1,233 were under 1 year, 456 over 1 and under 6 years, and 45 above 6 years.

According to sex there were 877 males and 902 females.

144. There were 35 cases of re-vaccination, of which 30 proved successful giving a percentage of 85·71.

145. The total cost of the establishment, which was borne by the Municipality, amounted to Rs. 255—12—0 or 3 Rs. 4 annas less than last year. Of this amount a reward of Rs. 15—12—0 was paid to parents of children vaccinated. The average cost of each successful case was 2 annas 3 pies, which is the same as in the preceding year.

VII. INSTRUCTION.

EDUCATION.

146. The number of schools connected with Government is 75, the same as last year, all aided institutions, but the attendance has risen from 4,421 to 4,653, an increase of over 5 per cent. The boys' schools are 45, with 3,026 pupils, and girls' schools 30, with 1,627. There are under instruction in these schools 1,467 Europeans or Eurasians, 627 Native Christians, 1,917 Hindus, 624 Muhammadans, and 18 others.

147. The following is a detailed statement for the past and present years:—

148. The grant to St. Paul's Boys' School was raised from Rs. 10 to 20 a month on its being placed on an improved footing and Rs. 100 granted for furniture. Building grants, under the provisions of the Code, were made—of Rs. 2,500 to the Baldwin High School, towards the erection of a commodious school-room, which is nearly completed; 1,200 to the Hindu Female School, for adding an upper storey and other improvements much needed; 950 to the Wesleyan School in Dharmaraja Kovil Street, which can now accommodate a large number of pupils; 1,119 to Bishop Cotton's, 284 to the Chatur Veda Siddanta Sabha Schools; 200 to St. John's and 54 to the Fort School—all for necessary repairs. A sum of Rs. 424 was further granted from municipal funds for the Lutheran Orphanage buildings.

149. Financial Statistics.—The Government expenditure on instruction was Rs. 30,730 (25,106 from imperial and 5,624 from municipal funds), while the private expenditure was Rs. 61,500, towards which school fees contributed Rs. 35,780, or Rs. 1,645 more than last year.

150. The following table shows the distribution of expenditure, from which it may be seen that Rs. 26,524 of the Government grants go to support English instruction, and Rs. 4,206 towards teaching in the vernaculars.

151. Altogether the cost of educating each pupil for the year was Rs. 19-13-1, of which Rs. 6—9—8 was defrayed from public, and Rs. 13—3—5 from private funds. Or in other words, each pupil on the whole paid Rs. 7—11—0 in fees, receiving aid from Government of Rs. 6—9—8 and from private sources of Rs. 5-8-5.

152. The following statement shows the amounts received and expended by the various religious denominations :—

Colleges.—The two colleges, St. Joseph's and Bishop Cotton's, sent up respectively 11 and 1 (female) student for the University First-in-Arts examination, but only 3 of the former passed, all in the second class. The proportion of failures in this examination, however, seems to have been large throughout the country. The college department of Bishop Cotton's is small, having only 5 students; St. Joseph's has 20, including natives. Both institutions have been working hard throughout the year. A home for native students was opened in connection with St. Joseph's on the 1st of January.

Secondary Schools.—The results of the teaching in High Schools, as shewn in the Matriculation examination, were rather more successful. Out of 65 pupils (60 boys and 5 girls) sent up, 22 (19 boys and 3 girls) passed; 2 boys, one from each of the Colleges, and 1 girl from the Convent, having gained a first class. The number from each school is shown in the margin. The Rev. Mr. King B. A., B. D., has taken charge of the Baldwin Schools in place of the Rev. Mr. Stuntz, transferred to Bombay. Except for one or two changes in the staff at St. Joseph's, the remaining schools continue in the same hands as before.

153. For the Higher Examination for Women there were 28 candidates, of whom 18 were successful, 10 being placed in the first class. These results are nearly the same as last year, except that all who passed then did so in the first class. The accompanying list gives particulars of the schools represented.

154. The Middle Schools sent up 148 pupils (111 boys and 37 girls) for the Middle School examination, of whom 65 (51 boys and 14 girls) passed, 4 boys and 1 girl being in the first class. An inspection of the list in the margin, giving the details with reference to the schools which competed, shows that St. Paul's (as was the case last year) and the Broadway school aimed too high. Also the pupils from St. Mark's were as a whole not sufficiently prepared. Bishop Cotton's seems to have done pretty well under this standard, and the same may be said of St. Joseph's. The importance of due attention to a proper grounding in the elementary studies of the lower classes cannot be too strongly insisted on.

155. Primary Schools.—The special upper primary examination appears to be less sought after than formerly and is chiefly taken up by girls. Whereas 31 passed in it last year, only 8 (6 girls and 2 boys) succeeded in getting through this year out of 26 (23 girls and 3 boys) who went up. It is probably too early a stage at which to expect that children at school should in any considerable numbers pass a public examination conducted by written papers.

156. Zenana Home Education.—This work is being carried on in connection with the National Indian Association in England, from whom some grants for its support have been forwarded through the Director of Public Instruction. The Government grant-in-aid, provisionally sanctioned for one year to christmas last, was continued on a favourable report of the results obtained. The teacher originally employed has been replaced by a native christian widow who has received a higher education, having passed the Madras 2nd and 3rd grade examinations in English, tamil and needlework. She visits on alternate days several Tamil families living in the Cantonment and in the Fort, who pay a regular scale of fees for her services. The scope of the work is at present very limited, but probably as much as can be undertaken with the existing means and agency.

157. Unaided Schools.—The return for unaided schools is the same as last year, when particular inquiries were made into the subject. The total number is 58, with 2,299 pupils. This includes 49 schools for boys, with an attendance of 1,965, and 9 for girls, with an attendance of 334.

158. Among these schools prominent mention may be made of those supported by Rai Bahadur Arcot Narainaswamy Modliar. The first is an anglo-vernacular school under a native graduate, teaching up to the middle school standard. A commercial class has lately been added to it and recognized for the Madras examination provided in that behalf. It is understood that the establishment of an industrial class is also in contemplation. Another of his schools is one for caste girls, chiefly tamil, at Halasur, which appears to be doing good work. A third institution is a school for pariahs and outcastes. This also is popular and well attended by children of menial servants and others.

159. Bangalore, taking into consideration only the Assigned Tract to which this report is confined, thus continues in its numerous schools, conducted by denominational or independent agency, to make ample provision for every form of instruction required by high or low, rich or poor. Without the assistance now given by Government, so extensive a work of education could not be carried on, but unless the population should largely increase there seems no immediate call for adding to the amount now given in grants-in-aid. It may be mentioned that, ever since the separation of the Assigned Tract, the control and inspection of education work in the Civil and Military Station was carried on, without any allowance, by the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore and his staff, to whom the Officiating Resident's acknowledgments are due.

LITERATURE AND THE PRESS.

160. The number of works registered in 1887 was only 11, one less than last year. There were 3 books in English, 5 in Kannada, 1 in Telugu, 1 in Kodagu, and 1 in English and Sanskrit.

The contents of the works bring them under the following heads :—Arts, Fiction, History, Language, Medicine, Religion, Natural Science and Travels. Under Arts is a work on Stenography ; under Travels is an account of the Maharaja of Mysore's tour through the West of his country in 1885, with photographs of the principal officials. The remainder are chiefly books for school use.

161. The number of printing presses is 21, or 2 more than last year. The increase is due to the re-opening of the Imperial Press and the establishment of a new Hindustani Press.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS.

ECCLESIASTICAL.

162. ROMAN CATHOLIC MISSION.—Nineteen Roman Catholic Priests were employed during the year for the spiritual administration of the thirteen thousand Catholics in the Civil and Military Station, and for the educational work of the several institutions connected with this Mission. In July 1887 the Catholic community sustained a great loss in the person of the late very Revd. F. Clemot, Vicar General of the Diocese of Mysore.

Owing to the increasing numbers of native students who attend the higher classes in St. Joseph's College, and at the request of many Hindu parents in the pettah and the mofussil, a students' home has been erected for natives in the neighbourhood of the College.

Much attention was paid to the Library in connection with St. Patrick's Cathedral; the premises were altered and improved, and the number of books, magazines and newspapers was largely increased. The Library was in consequence much resorted to during the year.

163. LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—Native Christian Congregation, under the pastorate of Revd. S. Gnanakan, comprises 210 persons including children. Services are held on Sundays at 11 A. M. and 5 P. M. Sunday school is held at 4 P. M., prayer meetings and special gatherings during the week. The Chapel is at No. 23, Infantry road. Several baptisms took place during the year under notice.

Schools.—A school teaching up to the fourth lower standard is at work at Ulsoor close to the great temple. Five teachers are employed, and the scholars number over 80. Another school of like standard is carried on in Topu Modeliar street near the market in the Cantonment, and contains 60 boys.

Female education also formed part of the work of this Mission in the Civil and Military Station. Mrs. Ranganadhan, the special lady agent, has carried on the work under the superintendence of Mrs. Slater. Thirteen houses were regularly visited during the year, and daily instruction was given to 15 pupils in both secular and religious subjects. The efforts of the Mission in this direction have been satisfactory.

Evangelistic Work.—Is carried on amongst the people of all castes and creeds, in English and in the vernacular. A Bible class in English for educated Hindus is held every Wednesday evening, and is well attended. Preaching in the Mission school room goes on every Thursday, and out of doors at all times and seasons. Revd. C. Ranganadhan is the itinerating evangelist in charge of this department.

164. WESLEYAN MISSION.—In the Civil and Military Station the Wesleyan Mission has two departments of work, English and Tamil.

There are two English chapels, one in East Parade and the other on St. John's Hill, with a minister attached to each. There is also a chapel at the Kolar Gold Mines which is supplied by the ministers in Bangalore. The latter also hold services at the City Railway Station and in the Infantry and Cavalry Barracks. The congregations number about 850, of whom 160 are communicants. In connection with each of the principal chapels there are girls' schools, which prepare pupils for the higher examination for women. In the East Parade school there are 66 pupils, and at St. John's Hill 48. The members of the East Parade Church support a free school in Campbell street, Shoolay, for the benefit of poor Eurasian children. There are three Sunday schools containing 200 scholars. A Dorcas Society meets every month and distributes clothing to the poor.

The Tamil work is under the superintendence of a European missionary assisted by a native minister and evangelist. The christian congregation numbers 475, of whom 175 are communicants. In addition to the ordinary services for christians in the Mission Chapel, the several school rooms in various parts of the Station are utilized for evening meetings, when the Gospel is preached both to christians and non-christians. The principal school is a middle school for boys, formerly conducted as a private institution by Mr. C. Aranachalla Modaliar. New premises have recently been erected in Dharmaraja street. Other schools for boys are conducted at Mutucheri, Shule, General Bazaar, Cavalry lines, Artillery lines Knox Petta, and Dobb's Petta. In the two schools first named English is taught as well as the vernacular. Tamil christian girls are provided for in the Boarding school, which at present accommodates about 40 pupils. Girls are prepared for the Mysore local examination in the vernacular and the special upper primary in English. There are four day schools for girls, viz. in Narrain Pillay street, Ulsur, Pulliar street and Markham's road. The number of scholars in all these institutions is upwards of 1,200, and there are 51 teachers. The girls' schools are superintended by two ladies. Zenana teaching is carried on in Hindu families by two other ladies with native assistants.

165. The Harvest Field, a monthly missionary magazine, and the Vrittanta Patrike, a weekly kanarese newspaper, are published in the Station.
